

MORNING APPEAL.

TUESDAY, MARCH 23, 1950

STOCKS.

In the first session yesterday morning Comstock prices were slightly off from the closing rates of Saturday. Some of the favorite outside stocks were also particularly depressed from Saturday's rates, while some were a trifle better. Belcher was weak, but Crown Point was weaker. Between sessions there was a break in Belcher, which fell away to 5 1/2. Potosi was strong, booming up to 4 1/2, but Chollar was an eighth off from the previous session. There was not much change in the other stocks. In the second session Overman was the only strong stock, there being a decline in nearly everything else along the line.

North Bonanza has levied an assessment of 25 cents.

Quinn stock is wanted in San Francisco at prices ranging from $1 to $2.

RELIEF FUND BENEFIT.—In the notice of the Relief Fund benefit for Custer Post the APPEAL neglected to state that the persons who have kindly volunteered to assist are with one exception parties not connected with the Post. The benefit deserves the fullest possible support.

SPRING.

IT OPENS STRONG IN CARSON—A BOOM PROMISED
FOUNDED ON ACTUAL DEVELOPMENTS—
GRASS, KINEAD, FLOWERS, FARMER
TREADWAY, ETHRELL SKY, SAM
WRIGHT, FRAGRANCE IN THE AIR, CLEM BERRY, ETC.

Since the clerk of the weather is manifesting a commendable disposition to lend a long looked for hoist to the spring boom the APPEAL willingly throws its influence into the breech to assist in the good work. For the past few days there has been a steady advance of meteorological securities coupled with a strong undercurrent of warmth which has given a marked degree of tone to the market. A few days ago Dan De Quille, the Comstock astronomer and weather sharp, sounded the key note of the advance, and now there is no longer any doubt but that the spring rise is upon us.

GENERAL VIEWS OF THE SITUATION.
The thermometer is climbing upwards steadily and there is now no longer any necessity of putting hot bricks to one's feet on retreating to bed. The Pikes have begun to hold their regular poker conventions in vacant lots and papposes are left in the sun without any danger to their health. The air is pregnant with warmth, the sky is cloudless and the flowers are pushing upward through the sod as if they intended to remain with us for the balance of the season. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Klein took a walk in the sunshine, and rushing into his establishment ordered a double quantity of beer to be made for the coming week. He judges from present indications that he will be disposing of five hundred kegs a week by the middle of April. The appearance of a watering cart on Carson street need surprise no one.

YESTERDAY AN APPEAL reporter called on Farmer Treadway to secure the old citizen's opinion on the real state of the weather as connected with the agricultural interests. He surveyed the clear sky, let the sun fall on his genial face and taking out his pocket book scratched the following on the fly leaf:

There's a sentiment in the song I sing,
Beats are on the increase,
The game of life is a shiftless thing,
And calamities never cease.

The poet here drifted from an inspirational to a bibulous mood and invited the scribe to dump a schooner of mountain beer into his lower levels. The schooner drifted across the bar, sailed into open port and was anchored after the usual fashion of such crafts. The old man then started for Thaxter's drug store to lay in a supply of seeds.

THE GOVERNOR INTERVIEWED.
Governor Kinkaid was positive that the change in the weather would be permanent and lasting. He had already begun to use ice water in the gubernatorial office and the bills for coal were falling off. He thought that a good spring followed by a reasonably successful summer would get the fall weather in shape for a lively political campaign. No campaign could be a success without good bright days. Some days ago he had been led to conclude that there was to be no spring, and believing that the weather came within the jurisdiction of the State authorities, he telegraphed to the signal service department at Washington for a batch of genuine spring days, and had also drawn up a proclamation to the effect that spring must begin without any further foolishness. As the required change had come about, however, he had allowed the U. S. Government to settle for the dispatch, and the proclamation, which had been drawn up with due observance to the rules of cultured English by his Secretary, had been consigned to the stove. He was glad to see the APPEAL take an interest in the matter. He purchased his spring suit of Besko and his best underwear of Koppel & Platt.

CLEM BERRY INTERVIEWED.
Clem Berry, the live colored town crier, was called on at his residence. He was quite reticent regarding the spring boom, but said if anybody wanted him to cry the thing up in the streets he would make the regular announcement for $5, accompanied by his bell. He did not view spring from a poetical standpoint like Wadsworth and others, but purely from a financial point of observation. He was an adept at putting down carpets and cleaning houses and when spring opened his services were in large demand. He didn't care a rap for the tender grass or fragrant flowers. Give him the carpet stretcher, the whitewash brush and ten dollars a day for internal improvements and he asks no odds in the game of life, believing that he holds most of the trump cards himself. Olcovich, Morris, Harris Brothers and Cohn were the places where the best carpets came from.

AN UNDERTAKER'S VIEWS.
Sam Wright, who knows all about Spring, was in a happy mood over the prospects. In winter, when the ground is frozen, it costs more to have graves dug than the profits on a funeral amounted to. Now the ground was thawing out, and it was child's play for an able-bodied man to dig graves. Most people liked better to be buried in summer, and to please his patrons was the main object of his existence, anyhow. He thought the weather market was booming in active developments. The Carson doctors, however, were playing the deuce with his business by curing everybody.

BARKEEPERS JUBILANT.
George Bryson, who, on account of his brevity of statue, has been dubbed, by universal consent, as the "Sawed off Yank," was next visited. He liked the gentle Spring, and the glorious climate of Nevada was "ducks" for him. The little warm spell had already had a perceptible effect upon the bar receipts. He was now at work on a new Summer beverage, which was the most cooling and delightful drink ever concocted by the genius of man. There was a peculiarity about it, however, which he explained to the reporter after administering an iron-bound oath of secrecy. The drink held a lively salt in solution, which, however, did not take immediate effect. After it got down the drinker would be seized with an unquenchable thirst, which only another drink of the same beverage could allay. The more he drank the more he wanted to. His stomach became like a super-heated lime kiln, and one drink of the new concoction was equal to twelve pounds of salt codfish. At picnics at Treadway's Park he expected that his invention would net him $500 a day. He bought his glass tumblers of E. B. Rail.

THE LADIES.
Are already crowding the millinery shops and raving over the ravishing Spring bonnets which are now presented for their consideration. A woman sees not half so many beauties in the ethereal blue of the heavens, the flower-flecked sod or in the balmy air as the delicate fabrics, the harmonizing hues and incomprehensible bonnets which cost $50 and upward. Mrs. Cavin, the Misses Brothers and Mrs. Wagner are the chief resorts of the Spring hat fiends.

SPRING REPAIRS.
Every house owner who has any regard for appearance or decency, is making preparations for spring repairs. When the snow melts away from the yard, it leaves unsightly fences, crumbling lattices and dilapidated wood sheds. The lumber for repairs can be purchased at E. M. Hunt's. If the house is to be refurbished, the parlor sets, side boards, etc., can be purchased at Kitzmeyer's, the wall paper at Webb's, the paint at Reinstein's and the fresh groceries at Mason & Co. A new bronze clock can be secured at Friend's, and anything else to complete your repairs at Fox's.

SPRING BUSINESS.
The APPEAL reporter has interviewed scores of business men and the majority tell of better trade with easier collections and every prospect of good times in Carson during the coming Summer.

STEALING GAME CHICKENS.—On Sunday night N. M. Jellerson heard a noise connected with his hen roost, and sallying out saw a couple of Chinamen getting over the fence with some of his fancy chickens. On taking an inventory of his henry he found that four valuable chickens and a game cock valued at $25 had been taken. He firmly believed that the latter could thrash any game cock on earth. The hens were setting on eggs when taken, and the eggs would have hatched out some fancy chickens in a few days more. Last evening officer Hawthorne rescued three of the fowls, including the $25 game cock, and arrested a Chinaman named Ah See. The latter he lodged in jail, as he found the property in his possession.

RETURN BALL.—The gentlemen who were so royally treated by the ladies at the leap year ball propose to return the compliment with interest. On Sunday evening a meeting was held at the Governor's office and committees were chosen to carry out the programme of a return ball, to come off some time in April. The invitation committee consists of the following gentlemen: Governor Kinkaid, W. H. Beatty, H. L. Tickner, Jas. Crawford, E. W. Hillyer, H. M. Yerington, and C. C. Batterman.

Last evening the police officers were at the train to attach the trunks of a demi monde who was leaving this city owing $30 for house rent. Seeing the officers on the platform she postponed her San Francisco trip indefinitely. Bets are now about five to one that she gets off.

Pat Judge, who was present in Virginia City when the attack was made on Tom Clarke, has announced his intention of earning the $1,000 reward offered by Gen. Clarke.

Mr. William Wilson, formerly of Pine Grove was married on Sunday night in the M. E. Church to Miss Lizzie Stewart. There was a large crowd in attendance.

The success of Capt Jack on the Comstock has been so great that he has determined to remain two days longer, and will not open here until Wednesday night.

C. C. Goodwin, of the Enterprise, was in the city on Sunday. He is about to spend a few weeks in Utah on mining business.

John Mellon, of Reno, was found dead in his bed in the Molinelli House on Sunday. There is a suspicion of suicide.

The Reinstein-Price case still drags in the District Court. There is nothing doing in the U. S. or Police Court.

The Governor has reappointed Major Stonehill as Notary Public of Storey county.

Brown & Davis' dancing school will hold a soiree at Arlington Hall this evening.

The Presbyterian Sociable will be held at John Rosser's house this evening.

A. Livingston, the County Treasurer of Douglas, is in the city.

Brad Williams has resigned the Foremanship of the Savage.

J. C. Hagerman, of Reno, passed through the city last night.

MISS SOLTER'S LECTURE.—The lecture advertised by Miss Solter, to come off on Sunday night at the Old Theater, has been indefinitely postponed. The following card tells the story.

CARD TO THE PUBLIC.
To those ladies and gentlemen who went last night to the lecture in vain—there were quite a number of them—I owe an apology. A week ago I bespoke the hall; nothing was said of prepayment; I am not used to pay in advance, and I am aware that Mr. Moore is not always paid in advance, but at the last hour I was notified, that the hall would not be lighted till the $10 were laid down. I did not have the money and it was too late to raise it. Thus I was compelled to postpone the lecture. Time and place will be advertised later. Respectfully,

MARIA SOLTER
It is a matter of regret, to the friends of the lady that she was put to so much trouble and inconvenience, about the hall rent. A man is not to blame for demanding hall rent in advance of parties whose disposition to pay he has any reason to suspect. Miss Solter is a lady who during several months of struggling with poverty in Carson, has never repudiated a just debt, and if Mr. Moore had been better acquainted with the ladies sterling honesty, and unfortunate circumstances, he would have allowed her to lecture. Those who were turned away from the door numbered more than enough to have enabled her to have settled for the hall and have a surplus. Governor Kinkaid, who came to attend the lecture, remarked that he would have willingly paid the hall rent himself, rather than see the lady put to such inconvenience. Miss Solter went to considerable expense in printing and advertising, and paid her bills at this office in advance, refusing to take away the work until she had paid, although she had been informed that her credit was perfectly good at any time. To see a woman of her gentle breeding and accomplishments in such circumstances is a crying shame.

MAJOR DENNIS AND AH KI.—Major John Dennis will oppose Sharon's re-election to the U. S. Senate.

Why?
He was forced to eat with Sharon's Chinaman, Ah Ki, at Battle Mountain.

The delegates to the meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee were coming over the C. P. from Elko, and Sharon and some lady relatives were on board the train.

None of the delegates, however, paid the slightest attention to Sharon.

He naturally wanted to get even.

He did.

Major Dennis of the Times-Review also had a lady with him, and at Battle Mountain all hands got off to take dinner.

Major Dennis and lady were seated at a table and the Major had just ordered coffee and soup, when Sharon and his crowd came in and took seats near by. Ah Ki, the famous fuc totum of the Senator, was about to sit along side his master when he ordered him with an impressive wave of the hand, to the table where Major Dennis and lady were seated. Ah Ki as soon as he was seated began to reach for every thing in sight, and in three minutes had nearly cleared the table. The Major was at first astounded, then nonplussed and next annoyed. He finally left the table and inquired of the landlord, in the strongest possible language, what he meant by allowing Chinamen to eat at the same table with white people. After some expostulation the landlord agreed to take the Celestial by the neck and heave him out of the window bodily, but when he went back to the table the Mongol had filled up and vanished. Under the circumstances the Major would have been perfectly justified in taking the obnoxious Coolie by the heels and thrashing Sharon over the head with him.

DEPARTURES.—The following passengers departed on the southern stage yesterday morning: A. C. Pratt, Jas. McAllister, H. H. Leaton, Mrs. Murphy, J. G. Diman, West George, W. N. Butts, H. E. Borten.

ARRIVALS.—The following persons arrived per southern stage yesterday morning: Dan Cameron, J. C. Hagerman, D. Y. Lusk, C. Richardson, A. C. Dwell, A. Koneke.

NOTICE.

All parties holding bills against Frank Boskowitz will present them for payment on or before the First day of April, and all parties indebted will call and pay at the same time without further notice.

ATTENTION!—The greatest wonder yet discovered in medicine is Mrs. Dr. Howe's celebrated rheumatism, neuralgia and toothache cures. Would you rather suffer the pain of having a tooth drawn than buy a bottle of Mrs. Dr. Howe's toothache medicine? Mothers should not be without it for their infants. A few drops in a little sweetened water to swab a teething baby's mouth will instantly relieve the little sufferer. The medicine does not cauterize, and is very pleasant. Sold by all druggists. mh7

PROFESSOR LANGER'S MUSIC CLASS.—Prof. Langer, the well known leader of Piper's Orchestra, has started a music class in Carson. He has already received a number of scholars from the best families in the city, and his thorough methods of instruction give the best of satisfaction. He gives vocal and instrumental instructions and teaches on the piano and violin. He will give lessons on Wednesday of each week. Orders can be left at the APPEAL office. f21-1m

ALWAYS AHEAD!

The Olcovich Brothers are now offering their stock at such rates that it will pay all thrifty persons to buy goods at their store.

Just opening:
Two hundred pieces new choice prints.

An invoice of E. C. Burt's celebrated kid boots.

Novelties in buttons, hairpins, fancy goods, rachings, etc., etc.

Irish poplins worth $2.50 at 75 cents per yard.

Irish poplins worth $1 at 50 cents per yard.

OLCOVICH BROTHERS.

WE CAN'T TALK

Without showing the condition of our teeth. Every laugh exposes them. In order not to be ashamed of them let us use that standard dentifrice, SOZODONT, which is sure to keep them white and spotless. No tartar can encrust them, no canker effect the enamel, no species of decay infest the dental bone, if SOZODONT is regularly used. It is a botanical preparation, and its beneficial effects on the teeth and gums are marvelous, as it removes all discolorations, and renders the gums hard and rosy. m7

MUSICAL.—Miss Lizzie Davis, of Virginia City, teacher of the violin, comes to Carson every Monday and remains until Wednesday. Adults or children wishing to become rapid and correct performers on the violin, and to acquire a profound knowledge of musical time and to read readily, also generally musical theory can get all necessary information as to terms etc., by inquiring of C. A. Marston, photographer, or at the Arlington House. Lessons in dancing given by Brown & Davis at Arlington Hall every Tuesday from 11 A.M. till 9 P. M. Social every night after dancing school. m9

A DRY GOODS DREAM.—A woman who goes into M. Cohn's emporium drifts off into a dream of rare and beautiful feminine finery. She sees the best product of foreign looms piled up on the counters, laces, draperies, illusions and elegant toilette materials, such as only the rarest skill can produce and which women of taste admire. The secret of the success of this house lies in the fact that M. Cohn knows how to select the best and is never imposed upon by the eastern houses who work off their inferior goods on inexperienced persons.

45 Years Before the Public. THE GENUINE Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the Liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia, and Sick Headache, or the uses of that character, they stand without a rival.

ACUE AND FEVER.
No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequalled.

Beware of Imitations.

The genuine are never sugar-coated.

Each box has a red wax seal on the lid with the impression, McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS.

Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.
